Description

A Detached family home enjoying a wonderful position towards the head of a cul-de-sac on this desirable road close to Loreto Grammar School, John Leigh Park and Altrincham town centre. The property is offered with no onward chain complications.

The accommodation in brief offers five bedrooms, two bathrooms, five reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, WC/shower room and a further double integral garage which offers further potential internal living space.

The property stands on a fantastic mature plot extending to approximately a third of an acre and whilst the property is of a substantial size already it offers considerable potential to extend, remodel, update and improve into a very much more significant family home.

As it stands the property offers approximately 4000sqft of internal accommodation along with a larger than average double garage measuring around 460sq ft.

The design of the property is typical to that of houses constructed in the 1960's and 1970's with particularly wide and full height windows providing an abundance of natural light.

Externally there is a deep and wide frontage proving off road parking for numerous vehicles, a larger than average detached double garage and a large stunning rear garden.
